

REQUESTING A REVIEW OF A UNIFORM CPA EXAM SCORE

- Q. What is the review process?
- A. The review process provides Uniform CPA Exam candidates the opportunity to have their responses rescored.
- Q. Why should a candidate request a review?
- A. If a candidate believes that his or her score does not accurately reflect his or her performance on the Exam, the candidate may wish to request a review of his or her responses.

Before a candidate requests a review, he or she should be aware that the score he or she received underwent several quality checks before it was reported. A change in score, as a result of a review, is therefore, very rare.

- Q. How and when does a candidate request a review?
- A. Contact the Board for instructions on requesting a review, paying the required fee, and meeting the review request deadline. The deadline for requesting a review is 30 days from the issue date as listed on your score notice.
- Q. How will the review result be communicated to the candidate?
- A. After the Board submits a candidate's request for a review to the American Institute of CPAs (AICPA), the AICPA will re-score the candidate's responses, and report the result to the Board. The Board will then transmit the result to the candidate.
